

February 9, 2024

"Bourse sees green for the 8th consecutive day"

The bourse ended in the green zone once again, recording 8 straight days of gains. ASPI, saw a fall in the index till post midday as investors booked profits notably on primary dealer counters, who saw an increase in their share prices over the last few session, but picked up towards the end of the session with ASPI ending at 10,567. SAMP, HHL & JKH were the largest positive contributors to the index whereas CFIN, MELS and BIL were the largest negative contributors. Turnover was recorded at LKR 792.4Mn 42% lower than the average monthly turnover of LKR 1.4Bn. Foreign investors remained net sellers, despite a keen buying interest on LLUB.

Estimated Value (LKR 'MN)